Oh Bill, I've decided I can live my life without you. I know I love women, but I can't wait to suit on your big soft flabby lap and rub that big belly again. I hope we can make amends and try to extort that Sean Booshie again. even if it causes us a few more million in defamation claims I don't care, I have to have you all over my flabby lesbian body. Maybe we can get that ooga boobies woman to join us in a threeway.. Ill meet you in Missoula, make sure you bring lots of ammo and your super extra bullet proof vest. Yours in internet psychotic stalking, dear Crystal.
