University of Montana employee Sean Boushie continues to impersonate people and steal their identity — Bill Windsor this time

University of Montana employee Sean Boushie continues to impersonate people and steal their identity — Bill Windsor this time.

Sean Boushie posted this online comment on www.LawlessAmerica.com

He pretends to be Bill Windsor, libels Bill Windsor by claiming he is a pedophile. He claims Bill Windsor has had orgasms with little boys. He ends with "Screw you Fatass." He is such a credit to the University of Montana.

Bill Windsor is not a pedophile. In fact, he has never been arrested or accused of any crime (other than traffic) by law enforcement.
