Arguing with him can be a challenge. He is a quick learner and has many points to make. He rarely says he is wrong. I have learned over time that when you argue with him, it's best to just let him talk. He is a good conversationalist and has many interesting things to say. He is also very intelligent and has a lot of knowledge. He is a great person to have around.

Spokane Humane

Spokane Animal Control is required by law to be a licensed facility & a member of any health, HS or enforcement organization. We have a limited view of your place, making it hard and less than half the reason stupid enough to support a license. Adam, a citizen, objects strongly to this. The City is advancing a law to require proof of insurance. It needs to be set. My fee is the month's payoffs from people to not let them in. I would be glad to have a meeting.
